

K-State Extension Master Naturalists to Host Wonders of Discovery at the Pollinator Prairie

The Johnson County Extension Master Naturalists will host a family-friendly Pollinator Event at the Pollinator Prairie in Olathe in conjunction with National Pollinator Week. All ages welcome!

Fun Activities & Exhibits!

- * Caterpillar Petting Zoo
- * Birds of Prey Exhibit
- * Honeybee Exhibits
- * What is a Pollinator?
- * Inviting Birds to Your Backyard
- * Seedball Making
- * Native Bees vs Honey Bees
- * Bat Exhibit
- * Caterpillar and Butterfly Exhibits
- * Decomposers: Mother Nature's Recyclers
- * How to Make Native Bee Houses
& much more!

WHEN:

Friday, June 25, 2021
9:00 am to 2:00 pm

WHERE:

Pollinator Prairie
320 S. Blake Street
Olathe, KS 66061

Directions:

- 1) I-35 South to Exit 218 toward Santa Fe.
- 2) Turn right (west) on Santa Fe.
- 3) Turn left (south) on Blake Street to Cedar Street.

Please park on Cedar Street or Keeler Street (1 block west of Blake) if possible.

This event is free and open to the public.

EXHIBITION PARTICIPANTS:

K-State Research and Extension Master Naturalists * K-State Research and Extension Master Gardeners
Monarch Watch * Operation Wildlife * Northeastern Kansas Beekeepers * Wild Birds Unlimited (Shawnee)
United States Environmental Protection Agency

CONTACT:

Mariruth Gruis (913.636.3497) or Julie Rounds (703.663.0742)

Sponsors:

Haley & Aldrich * The Boeing Company
Ruby Consulting Inc * Wild Birds Unlimited (Shawnee)

POLLINATOR PRAIRIE

SCAN ME

K-STATE
Research and Extension

Master Naturalist
Johnson County