

Pollinator Prairie to host Pollinator Event

Wonders of Discovery

The Pollinator Prairie will host a family-friendly event at the garden in Olathe in conjunction with National Pollinator Week.

This event is free and open to the public.

People of all ages are invited to learn about pollinator species with activities including: Caterpillar Petting Zoo, Bat Exhibit, Caterpillar and Butterfly Exhibits, Birds of Prey Exhibit, Native Bees vs Honey Bees, Building Native Bee Houses, Bringing Nature Home, "Get Your Fingers in the Dirt", Arts & Crafts, Coloring Books and much more.

When:

Friday, June 21, 2019, 9:00 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Where:

Pollinator Prairie

320 S. Blake Street • Olathe, Kansas 66061

Directions:

FROM KANSAS CITY:

1. Take I-35 South
2. Take exit 218 toward Santa Fe
3. Turn right (west) onto Santa Fe
4. Turn left on S. Blake St.

Contact:

Mariruth A. Gruis 913-636-3497 or Marilyn Jordan 913-693-1906

Exhibition Participants:

- K-State Extension Master Gardeners Wildlife Habitat Committee & Master Naturalists
- Johnson County Environmental
- Olathe Public Library
- Monarch Watch
- Northeastern Kansas Beekeepers
- Operation Wildlife
- United States Environmental Protection Agency

*Pollinator Prairie
Partner*

K-STATE
Research and Extension

Master Naturalist
Johnson County

Sponsors

Haley & Aldrich • Hunter Brothers Lawn and Landscape
Lenny's Subs • Old Time Village Musicians
Ruby Consulting Inc • The Boeing Company
Vernon Company - Pamela Kenney • Wild Birds Unlimited (Shawnee)

ARC
Document Solutions