

SILVER CLOVER

A series for adults 50+

New Classes Continually added
From Oct. 5 to Dec. 11

Johnson County Extension is offering a variety of educational opportunities for adults 50 and older, all free of charge until the end of 2020. Most classes have a free kit that goes along with the class. These events will use a combination of virtual and live activities so you can remain safe, but still connect to classmates and instructors to maximize learning!

Some of our potential offerings:

- Cooking for One or Two
- Bluebirds and building a bird house
- Master of Memory
- Gardening topics
- Electric Pressure Cooking
- Board Leadership
- Flowering bulbs for winter
- Beginning Quilting
- Dining with Diabetes
- Walk with Ease
- Bird Watching for Beginners
- 4-Course Living
- DIY Medicare Part D

And more!!!

K-STATE
Research and Extension
Johnson County

Register:

<https://tinyurl.com/silverclover>

Call: 913-715-7000

Visit: johnson.k-state.edu